

Early Years Teacher

Required for October 2017 or as soon as possible

We are seeking to appoint a teacher to the Early Years of our all-through academy. This is a superb opportunity for an ambitious, innovative and creative practitioner to help influence the success of our growing Primary Phase which opened in September 2013. This post is suitable for an NQT and as a Primary Phase have a very good track record in successfully supporting NQTs through their first teaching year and beyond.

We are looking for someone who is:

- passionate about early learning, understands holistic child development and is committed to ensuring that children enjoy their time in school
- dedicated to raising standards of teaching, learning and achievement
- a reflective individual who is committed to their own professional development
- a driven person who is able to lead learning among adults and children in a supportive and nurturing way.

We will offer:

- a new, state of the art building with outstanding indoor and outdoor facilities, much of which has been designed by our team of practitioners for our children
- a team of practitioners (including school leaders) who are committed to providing truly outstanding Early Years and Key Stage 1 provision and teaching which develops the whole child
- a positive, motivating and stimulating environment in which to work with ongoing training and opportunities for further career progression

Dixons Allerton Primary is committed to equality of opportunity. We positively welcome applications from all sections of the community. The academy is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Successful applicants will need to undertake enhanced DBS clearance for the academy.
